21-NREC-MD-010-R1

- Principal Investigator: Dr Darren Mylotte
  - Study title: LANDMARK Trial: A prospective, multinational, multicentre, open-label, randomized, noninferiority trial to compare safety and effectiveness of Meril’s Myval Transcatheter Heart Valve (THV) series vs. Contemporary Valves (Edwards’ Sapien THV series and Medtronic’s Evolut THV series) in patients with severe symptomatic native aortic valve stenosis
  - Lead institution: University Hospital Galway, Newcastle Rd, Galway, H91 YR71
  - NREC-MD comments
    - The Committee noted that this application represents the applicant’s response to a Request for further information from the NREC-MD.
    - The NREC-MD noted that correspondence from the HPRA to the Sponsor in relation to prior studies on the MyVal device, was submitted as a part of the response to the Committee.
    - The NREC-MD agreed the applicant had not addressed the Committee’s request for further information satisfactorily, particularly in the important areas of data protection and participant-interfacing documentation.
    - The NREC-MD noted that the revised DPIA does not sufficiently clarify the locations of data processing and retention, nor does it indicate any input from the site’s DPO. To that end, the NREC-MD was not sufficiently assured that the participants’ data would be processed in line with the best practice and the Data Protection Act 2018 (Section 36(2) (Health Research) Regulations 2018).
    - The NREC-MD noted that while somewhat revised, the participant information leaflet and consent form require significant revision to ensure that the consent sought from participants is truly informed and compliant with the Data Protection Act 2018 (Section 36(2) (Health Research) Regulations 2018).
  - NREC-MD decision
    - Unfavourable

  - NREC-MD comments
    - The NREC-MD noted that this study uses an optical eye movement measurement device developed at Trinity College Dublin called the itremor-RESEARCH to investigate the potential effects of mild head injury on 'ocular microtremor (OMT)'.
    - The NREC-MD commented on the challenges of securing informed consent in emergency settings. To that end the National Office agreed to assist the NRECs in their giving of further consideration to this topic.
  - NREC-MD decision
    - Favourable with conditions
  - Further information requested / Associated conditions
    - The NREC-MD requests that the insurance policy is updated to provide cover for the full duration of the study.
